NEW YORK POLICE TRAINING SCHOOL In Charge of Inspector Cornelius J. Cahalane

When Commissioner Arthur Woods became the head of New York's big force, one of the first things he did was to reconstruct the whole methods of police training. A close study of several years of existing conditions brought him to the conclusion that what the force needed, and needed quickly, was more training - a longer course of training for the recruits and specialized training for every rank of the service.

Let us look over some of the reasons for this. Foremost of all is the fact that although its police force is only half the size of London's, New York is now the largest city in the word. It has 315 square miles to be patrolled; 5,000 miles of streets and highways. Its 445 miles of water front, holding millions of dollars worth of property in various stages of transit, must be kept free from river pirates by patrol boats. In some of the congested sections there are more persons living on one block than there are in many thriving cities. Many blocks on the East Side each contain more than 3,500 residents. In the block bounded by 61st and 62nd Streets, Amsterdam to West End Avenue, there are more than 8,000 negroes living in tenements.

The population of the city is about 6,000,000, of which more than 2,000,000 - one third - were born 'on the other side.'

These immigrants bring with them customs of their fatherland which often innocently lead them into violations of the law here. Freedom from persecution is only too often construed as freedom from all civic responsibility. In precincts where the foreign element predominates, a patrolman must be tactful and well trained so that he may correct by explanation and warning conditions which otherwise would have to be remedied by expensive court action. In addition, just as New York offers the most promising field for the efforts of the cleverest in every profession, so does it appeal to the sharpest of those who live by their wits - who come, attracted by the big money. The crooks, from dip to wiretapper, have been forced to newer and cleverer tricks to keep abreasi of the times. They have availed themselves of every invention of science to further their ends. These conditions must be met by more scientific police instruction.

The fist thing Commissioner Woods did was to change the title of the School of Recruits to 'The Training School.' The change was significant. Police training, which had heretofore been confined to a six-weeks course of instruction for the recruits, was broadened to take in every branch of police service.

THE FACTS

7. By correspondence dated March 28, 2007, Plaintiffs Duffelmeyer, Heisler, Carpiniello, Tancredi, Walther, Arce, and DeVittorio advised the members of the Town's Board of Police Commissioner and Police Captain Anthony Marraccini in pertinent respect:

"This letter is to inform you of a disturbing set of circumstances that may constitute the possible commission of a crime..

In January, 2007, [PBA] President Tancredi was conducting a customary examination of the many donations the Harrison Police Association receives during the Christmas holiday season. Pursuant to his examination. President Tancredi noticed that Brae Burn Country Club, as well as other donors, had not sent their customary annual donation. He inquired with the administration at Brae Burn CC as to whether they had sent or were going to send their annual donation for 2006. The administration said that they had made a donation of $2,500.00 and that the check was personally picked up by Chief Hall at Brae Burn CC. The Brae Burn CC administration said that they would look into the matter and get back to President Tancredi. President Tancredi and other members of the [PBA'S] executive board were contacted a short time later and the Brae Burn CC administration was disturbed to find out that the check had been altered and the funds had been deposited in the New York State Chiefs of Police Association account (Chief Hall was the President of the Chiefs Association at the time).

The Brae Burn administration was very clear with President
Tancredi that the check was made out to the Harrison Police Association and was intended to be a charitable donation to the Harrison Police Association (see enclosed copy of check). Brae Burn said they received a receipt (see enclosed copy) for an advertisement in the Chiefs of Police Association Journal a short time after Chief Hall picked up the check, but apparently Chief Hall never discussed the advertisement with the Brae Burn charitable donation committee and Brae Burn did not authorize anyone to cross out Harrison in the payee line and replace it with Chiefs. They also said they were very surprised when they saw that the funds had gone to the Chiefs of Police Association and not the Harrison Police Association.

President Tancredi, under his belief that a mistake had been made, discussed the matter with the Association's executive board and some other members of the Association. Vice President Michael Walther subsequently asked Chief Hall if he had any checks or donations that were intended for the Harrison Police Association. The hope was that a mistake had been made. In the past, some donations that were intended for the Association had been mistakenly deposited into the Town of Harrison accounts and reimbursements by the Town were made to the Association when the errors were made apparent. Chief Hall, however, informed

Vice President Walther that he did not have any checks or any funds that were intended for the Association.

...[T]he [PBA] members concluded that it was possible that the Brae Burn donation check may have been intentionally altered and redirected into the Chiefs of Police account. As this would constitute a criminal act, it [is] the understanding of the members of the Association with knowledge of this possible crime that we have an obligation to report the incident to the Harrison Police Department. . . We respectfully request that you investigate this matter on our behalf. . . It is also our understanding that if we are not comfortable or disagree with the results of your investigation, we reserve the right as potential crime victims to pursue the matter with another law enforcement agency."

Annexed to the complaint and made and part hereof are copies of the referenced correspondence and enclosures.

- 8. Within a matter of hours of the delivery of the correspondence referenced in the preceding paragraph "7", Hall directed Marshall and others in the administration of the Police Department to investigate the PBA members' complaint - - not with a view towards ascertaining if a crime had indeed been committed, but rather with the selfserving objective of covering-up that crime and silencing the Plaintiffs.
- 9. In that connection Marshall personally advised the Plaintiffs or virtually all of the Plaintiffs that the were ordered to silence and were henceforth forbidden to communicate with any other law enforcement agencies and/or members of the Harrison

Police Department and/or members of the Harrison Police Association with respect to their fact-based beliefs that Hall had forged the subject check, been in criminal possession of that forged instrument, and intentionally stole on behalf of his Chiefs Association moneys he knew were intended for the Harrison Police Association.

- 10. With respect to the "gag" order imposed by Marshall for Hall, Marshall informed Plaintiffs that the issue of Hall's apparent commission of several felonies was being referred to the so-called Public Integrity Bureau of the Westchester County District Attorney's Office - - a circumstance that Plaintiffs recognized to be part of an orchestrated cover-up since the District Attorney herself:
 - a. Is a personal friend of Hall,
 - b. Is deeply indebted to Hall for securing her endorsement by the Chiefs of Police Association during her recent election campaign for the office of District Attorney - - and will need that endorsement again when she runs for re-election,
 - c. Is by reason of that indebtedness and friendship going to cover-up through the so- called Public Integrity Bureau Hall's crimes rather than prosecuting him, and,
 - d. Will not request that the Governor appoint a special prosecutor despite the District Attorney's obvious conflict of interest because the appointment of a special prosecutor would interfere with the District Attorney's expected cover-up.

- 11. Each of the Plaintiffs is aware of Marshall's order, Marshall and Hall's threat of retaliatory disciplinary action in the event of non-compliance, and the self-evident cover-up presently underway to insulate Hall from criminal prosecution.
- 12. As a proximate result each of the Plaintiffs has been chilled in the prospective exercise of his rights of association, speech and to petition government for the redress of grievance. None will risk the threat of a disciplinary prosecution with the prospect of an indefinite suspension without pay. None will report to any other law enforcement agency the apparent crimes as committed by Hall. None will discuss the matter further.
- 13. By reason of Defendants' conduct each of the Plaintiffs has been caused: emotional upset; anxiety; violations of their First Amendment protected rights; humiliation; embarrassment; shame and has otherwise been rendered sick and sore.

AS AND FOR A CLAIM

- 13. Repeat and reallege as if fully set forth the allegations of fact contained in paragraphs "1" to "'12", inclusive.
- 14. Under the premises Defendants' conduct violated Plaintiffs' rights as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, 42 U.S.C. §1983.

 WHEREFORE a judgment is respectfully demanded:
 - a. Awarding against the individually named Defendants such punitive damages as the jury may impose,
 - b. Awarding against all Defendants such compensatory damages as the jury may determine,
 - c. Awarding reasonable attorney's fees and costs, and,

d. Granting such other and further relief as to the Court seems just and proper.

To: Captain Anthony Marraccini From: Officers listed herein Re: Possible crime committed

Captain,

This letter is to inform you of a disturbing set of circumstances that may constitute the possible commission of a crime.

In January, 2007, President Ralph Tancredi was conducting a customary examination of the many donations the Harrison Police Association receives during the Christmas holiday season. Pursuant to his examination, President Tancredi noticed that Brae Burn Country Club, as well as other donors, had not sent their customary annual donation. He inquired with the administration at Brae Burn CC as to whether they had sent or were going to send their annual donation for 2006. The administration said that they had made a donation of $2500.00 and that the check was personally picked up by Chief Hall at Brae Burn CC. The Brae Burn CC administration said that they would look into the matter and get back to President Tancredi. President Tancredi and other members of the executive board were contacted a short time later and the Brae Burn CC administration was disturbed to find out that the check had been altered and the funds had been deposited in the New York State Chiefs of Police Association account (Chief Hall was the President of the Chiefs of Police Association at the time). The Brae Burn administration was very clear with President Tancredi that the check was made out to the Harrison Police Association and was intended to be a charitable donation to the Harrison Police Association (see enclosed copy of check). Brae Burn said they received a receipt (see enclosed copy) for an advertisement in the Chiefs of Police Association Journal a short time after Chief Hall picked up the check, but apparently Chief Hall never discussed the advertisement with the Brae Burn charitable donation committee and Brae Burn did not authorize anyone to cross out Harrison in the payee line and replace it with Chiefs. They also said that they were very surprised when they saw that the funds had gone to the Chiefs of Police Association and not the Harrison Police Association.

President Tancredi, under the belief that a mistake had been made, discussed the matter with the Association's executive board and some other members of the Association. Vice President Michael Walther subsequently asked Chief Hall if he had any checks or donations that were intended for the Harrison Police Association. The hope was that a mistake had been made. In the past, some donations that were intended for the Association had been mistakenly deposited into Town of Harrison accounts and reimbursements by the Town were made to the Association when the errors were made apparent. Chief Hall, however, informed Vice President Walther that he did not have any checks or any funds that were intended for the Association.

President Tancredi and the other members of the Association with knowledge of the events in question now needed legal advice and advice was sought from multiple sources. This took a few weeks because some of the attorneys were not available when the Association members were available. After legal consultation (and only after these legal consultations), the members concluded that it was possible that the Brae Burn donation check may have been intentionally altered and redirected into the Chiefs of Police account. As this would constitute a criminal act, it the understanding of the members of the Association with knowledge of this possible crime that we have an obligation to report the incident to the Harrison Police Department. This letter is intended to serve as notification to you and the department of this incident. We respectfully request that you investigate this matter on our behalf and notify us of the results of your investigation. It is also our understanding that if we are not comfortable or disagree with the results of your investigation, we reserve the right as potential crime victims to pursue the matter with another law enforcement agency.

We would also like to note at this time that we are making this notification due to our legal and departmental obligations. We are, however, fearful of retaliatory action on the part of the Harrison Police Department administration and we would like that to be noted at this time. It is our sincere hope and expectation that we will be given the understanding and courtesy shown to other potential crime victims by the Harrison Police Department.
